Featuring Joshua Koskoff of Koskoff, Koskoff &amp; Bieder	Joshua Koskoff represents the third generation of Koskoffs at Koskoff, Koskoff and Bieder. Known for his dedication, compassion and creativity, Josh brings all of his cases a fresh and unique perspective, and will share that perspective on the topic of voir dire. There is no question that voir dire is an integral part of trial law in the state of Connecticut. Nor is there any doubt that picking a bad jury can torpedo your case. This informal seminar will discuss issues related to voir dire with an eye towards helping you to maximize voir dire to get a fair jury. Josh will share his thoughts on communicating with perspective jurors, certain myths of voir dire, common mistakes, and strategies to help you identify and deal with killer jurors in an effort to maximize your chances at getting a fair and impartial jury.
